

sports center and trailside condo complexes. New trails have been cut, snowmaking has been upgraded. Summer has become almost as busy as winter with an alpine slide, crafts fairs, concerts. Some 150,000 skiers visit the mountain each year.

But Frank has not limited his talents to serving Pico. His community and his State have benefited from his many talents, time and again. He currently serves as chair of the Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Vermont board and as president of the Alpine Pipelines Co. He's a trustee of the Vermont Historical Society and a member of the Rutland Redevelopment Authority and is a past president of the Vermont Ski Areas Association. And he has long worked to bring inner-city kids to Pico to experience Vermont outdoor recreation. Also, he chaired my Congressional Youth Awards Program in Vermont.

That is only a partial list of the worthwhile enterprises which Frank has graced with his unfailingly sound judgment and boundless energy. Vermont is the better for his having come our way.

Pico is a place of legends. The Mead family, legends of American skiing, founded the area and on it many ski champions have learned the sport and developed into world class skiers. The most famous of all was Andrea Mead, the first American woman to win an Olympic ski medal.

When the stories of Pico and its famed sons and daughters are recalled at firesides down the long winter nights of Vermont winters ahead, the name of Frank Heald will be mentioned with the greats as a true pioneer and entrepreneur of Vermont skiing. His contributions are worthy of recognition here in the U.S. Senate.●
